PROJECT

The Long Lost Isle - C++ Console Survival Game

github.com/ProdigyRid419/COS1-project_portfolio-BlockLouis

- Developed a text-based survival game featuring exploration, resource gathering, crafting, hunting, cooking, water collection, and time-based survival mechanics.
- Designed separate classes for inventory, crafting, locations, camp storage, player stats, campfires, and game time to keep responsibilities organized.
- Implemented string-based menu validation, inventory limits, dedicated equipment slots, and interconnected gameplay systems.
- Used Git and GitHub to track issues, manage branches, document progress, and test changes throughout development.
